

ANNOUNCEMENT

Advocacy Services for Abused Deaf Victims

*ASADV will host a special evening
at the Rochester School for the Deaf
on Saturday, March 31, 2007
$20 per person*

5-7 p.m. BBQ Dinner by Boy Scout Troop #334 and Rochester Deaf Rotary in Forrester Hall.

*7:30 p.m. "Lily Loves Charlie , OK ?",
a short drama about domestic violence,
directed by J. Matt Searls
and
assisted by Patrick Graybill in Auditorium.*

*A brief candlelight ceremony
and
a reception will be held afterwards.*

Proceeds will help further ASADV's mission.

DEADLINE for tickets: March 24, 2007

Contact asadv@asadv.org for tickets.

ASADV makes every effort to advocate for and to make sure that services are available to Deaf adults and their children who are or have been victims of domestic violence and/or sexual assault. We still continue to develop and implement projects, provide workshops, and educational programs. ASADV is a unique not-for-profit organization which mission is aid in recovery through advocacy and empowerment. Also, its vision is to offer a safe environment of empowering, advocacy, and educational/training services to Deaf and Heard of Hearing victims of domestic and/or sexual assault.