

Expectations and Guidelines for TechGirlz Participants

The following expectations and guidelines are in place to provide a positive experience and help ensure that all participants treat one another, themselves, and RIT/NTID staff with respect and consideration. In addition to comply with all federal, state, and local laws,* we expect participants to comply with the guidelines below. Any student exhibiting any of the behaviors listed below may be subject to disciplinary actions.

Attendance: TechGirlz participants must attend all program activities.

Endangering Behavior: Conduct that threatens or endangers the health and/or safety of a person(s), including but not limited to exiting a building through the window or the throwing of objects out the window is prohibited. Persistent inappropriate behavior and/or infractions of these rules will lead to possible dismissal from TechGirlz program. Parents/Guardians will be responsible to incur expenses for their child's return back home.

Fire Safety: Setting a fire, causing a false fire alarm, or causing an unreasonable situation that creates a fire safety hazard is prohibited.

Keys & Meal Cards: Participants that are issued a room key, exterior key, meal card and/or linen are responsible for returning these items at check out. There is an $85 charge for any key and $5 charge for any meal card that is not returned by checkout.

Leaving Campus: TechGirlz students are not allowed to leave campus during the program unless prior arrangements have been made between the student, parent, and the program coordinator.

Privacy: TechGirlz participants should respect the privacy of others and must not enter other students' rooms without their permission.

Quiet Hours: Quiet hours are between 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. Conduct that disturbs the peace of the community is forbidden.

Residence Hall: TechGirlz participants must be in their own dormitory room with the door shut at 11:00 p.m. Students are not allowed to leave their dormitory rooms between 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. All entrances to the residence halls will be locked for safety, and guests will not be issued main-door keys. They should take care of their room and must not remove furniture or window screens from the room.

Theft: Attempted or actual unauthorized possession of RIT/NTID property or other personal or public property is prohibited.

Vandalism: Attempted or actual damage to or alteration of RIT/NTID property or other personal or public property is prohibited.

I have read the Expectations and Guidelines for TechGirlz Participants and agree to abide by the expectations outlined. I understand that if I do not abide by these guidelines, my parent(s) or guardian(s) may be contacted or I may be removed from the program.
