Critical Outcomes for all Students

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Domain/Task/Capability</th>
<th>Performance Criteria/Benchmarks</th>
<th>Assessment of Outcomes</th>
<th>Timeline</th>
<th>Results</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Success in AMT AAS Program</td>
<td>Students will make satisfactory progress while in the AMT program.</td>
<td>Courses offered at NTID and in CAST programs</td>
<td>Seventy five percent (75%) of students will make satisfactory progress in completing required courses with a &quot;C&quot; or better while in the AMT program.</td>
<td>Annual collection of data starting the year after the AMT program is implemented(AY 2007-2008.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transferability</td>
<td>Students completing the AAS program will be accepted into one of CAST's engineering technologies program.</td>
<td>Student transfer rates</td>
<td>Of those who have the intent to enroll, 75% of students completing the AMT degree will be accepted into a CAST engineering technology program.</td>
<td>Annual collection of data starting two years after AMT program is implemented (AY 2008-2009.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Success in CAST BS Program</td>
<td>The AMT program will prepare students for success in CAST Engineering Technology programs</td>
<td>Student retention and graduation rates</td>
<td>For AMT graduates who transfer to a CAST engineering technology program, their retention and graduation rates will not be not significantly different than</td>
<td>Annual collection of data starting two years after AMT program is implemented (AY 2008-2009.)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Transferability

- Students completing the AAS program will be accepted into one of CAST's engineering technologies program.
- Student transfer rates:
  - Of those who have the intent to enroll, 75% of students completing the AMT degree will be accepted into a CAST engineering technology program.
- Timeline:
  - Annual collection of data starting two years after AMT program is implemented (AY 2008-2009.)
- Results:
  - Curriculum approved during AY20054; no students enrolled as of 20061. It is too early to determine.
Graduating students will indicate satisfaction with the AMT courses and program.

Eighty percent (80%) of students graduating will indicate "satisfaction" with the AMT courses and the program.

Administered yearly to 2nd year students in the Spring quarter (beginning AY 2007-2008.)

Comments:

/ssl
Rev: 05/31/2007