

NTID 2017–2018 International Declaration of Finance Form

Note: The total cost for study at RIT/NTID is approximately $44,000USD and is adjusted on an annual basis. RIT/NTID will issue the I-20 or DS-2019 Forms necessary to apply for a student visa when the accepted student applicant demonstrates sufficient funds to cover costs of attendance, of which may include scholarships offered by RIT/NTID. Please complete all sections on this form and provide supporting documents to report available funds, regardless of amount, and mail original copies to RIT/NTID. Applicants are considered for tuition-reduction scholarships based on financial need. There is also a limited number of full scholarships for applicants from developing countries through the Sasakawa-DeCaro Endowed Scholarship Fund. Contact NTID Admissions for scholarship information and refer to www.ntid.rit.edu/apply/international for application requirements and costs.
